

Space to Live Well

KEYSTONE.CO/WELLNESS | 717-355-0592

WELLNESS, DESIGNED FOR YOUR LIFE

At Keystone Outdoor Living, we believe your backyard should do more than look beautiful. It should serve you. It should restore you. It should create space for what matters most.

That's why we've expanded beyond traditional outdoor living to introduce a new standard of at-home wellness. By integrating thoughtfully designed pool houses, pools, saunas, hot tubs, cold plunges, and fitness spaces into your backyard, we help you bring the benefits of a high-end wellness retreat into your everyday life.

This isn't an add-on. It's a shift in how your outdoor space works for you. Whether it's recovery after a long day, movement that supports your health, intentional time with family, or a quiet place to reset, your backyard becomes a place of purpose, not just presence.

With Keystone, wellness isn't something you travel to. It's something you live in.

WHERE WELLNESS TAKES SHAPE

SPAS

Unwind at the end of the day in the comfort of your own hot tub. Designed for relaxation, recovery, and connection, it creates a space to slow down and enjoy meaningful time with family and friends, all just steps from your door.

POOLS

A refreshing space for everyday wellness. Pools create a place to move, relax, cool down, and reconnect, turning your backyard into a restorative retreat designed for health, connection, and meaningful time with family and friends.

SAUNAS

Step into a space built for restoration. Saunas offer a time-tested way to relax the body, improve circulation, and support overall well-being. Built into a custom structure or added as a standalone feature, a sauna becomes a quiet retreat to reset and recharge.

POOL HOUSES

The foundation of a complete outdoor experience. Pool houses create a central hub for relaxation, recovery, and connection, with flexible features tailored to your lifestyle and designed to bring your outdoor wellness space together seamlessly.

COLD PLUNGES

Cold plunges are designed for those who want to take recovery further. With benefits like reduced inflammation, increased energy, and mental clarity, they provide a powerful contrast to heat and a disciplined way to invest in your health, making daily recovery easier to maintain.

FITNESS SPACES

A dedicated space for movement, recovery, and performance. Integrated fitness spaces make it easy to bring your wellness routine home, with room for features like workout equipment, recovery areas, and a thoughtfully designed environment that supports your lifestyle.

BULLFROG SPAS

M SERIES

The M Series blends advanced hydrotherapy with intentional design, delivering a personalized wellness experience. From targeted muscle relief to full-body relaxation, it's built to help you recharge, recover, and feel your best day after day.

CALM SERIES

Designed for simplicity and stillness, the Calm Series focuses on quiet moments of recovery and reset. Gentle hydrotherapy and uncluttered design create a space to slow down, breathe deeper, and step away from the noise of the day.

A SERIES

Balanced and versatile, the A Series offers a practical approach to everyday wellness. With comfortable seating and reliable hydrotherapy, it creates an easy, inviting way to unwind, ease tension, and build a consistent rhythm of relaxation at home.

STIL SERIES

Rooted in minimalism, the Stil Series is all about presence and calm. Clean lines and a refined aesthetic pair with soothing hydrotherapy to create a restorative environment that encourages you to pause, reset, and be fully present.

X SERIES

The X Series brings accessible wellness into reach without sacrificing comfort. Designed for straightforward enjoyment, it provides a simple way to relax, loosen up, and create more moments of rest in your routine.

SWIM SPA

A Swim Spa transforms your space into a complete wellness environment. Whether it's low-impact exercise, active recovery, or a place to unwind, it supports movement, strength, and relaxation in one seamless experience.

SMARTER CONSTRUCTION & ENGINEERING

BULLFROG TRADITIONAL

Bullfrog spas are built differently from the inside out. A simplified plumbing design uses shorter water paths and fewer connections, while the molded EnduraFrame® structure contains no wood or metal to rot or corrode. Together, these features are designed to improve reliability, efficiency, and long-term durability.

BULLFROG TRADITIONAL

The Calm 7L is designed to elevate everyday relaxation, featuring spacious seating for up to seven, including a full length lounge seat that supports the entire body for deeply immersive comfort. An impressive 47 stainless accent jets deliver soothing, head to toe hydrotherapy, while premium soft support headrests, three extra bright hi power LED lights, and a tranquil lighted waterfall create a serene spa retreat at home. Built on the durable 100 percent wood free EnduraFrame® support structure with energy saving premium insulation, the Calm 7L offers long lasting performance and efficiency typically found in higher priced spas.

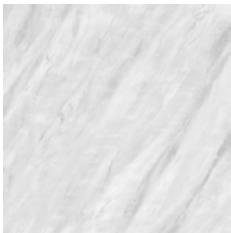

The Calm 7 is designed to elevate everyday relaxation with spacious seating for up to seven and an impressive 47 stainless accent jets that deliver soothing, full-body hydrotherapy. Its premium soft-support headrests, vibrant hi-power LED lighting, and serene lighted water feature create a tranquil retreat right in your backyard. Built on the durable, wood-free EnduraFrame® support structure and wrapped in stylish exterior finishes, the Calm 7 blends long-lasting performance with contemporary design.

The Calm 6 delivers powerful hydrotherapy in a compact, efficient design, featuring seating for six and 28 stainless accent jets for soothing, targeted relief. With premium headrests, vibrant LED lighting, a lighted waterfall, and the durable EnduraFrame® structure, it offers exceptional quality and comfort at an accessible price—bringing everyday calm to any backyard.
